

Have you thought about... A career in law?

Are you aged 16,17 or 18 and not sure what to do next?

If you are...

- Ambitious
- Hard working
- Want to develop new skills in a sector that has great opportunities for young people

...then Damar Training (www.damartraining.com) want to speak to you. We are working with law firms who are looking to recruit Apprentices to work in a variety of roles.

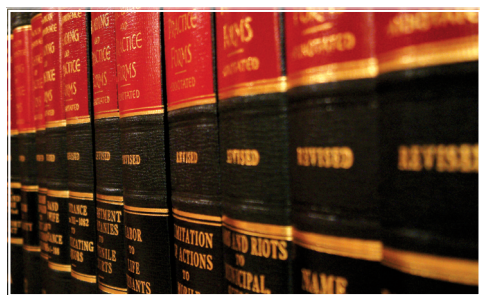

You will receive...

- Tailored training from Damar leading to an Apprenticeship in Business and Administration
- An initial wage of at least £95 per week (in some cases more)

- The security of knowing that your training is supported by Damar and The North West Apprenticeship Company

The legal sector has fantastic opportunities for progression. Options that may be open to you include:

- Legal executive
- Paralegal
- Legal support
- Solicitor
- Costs negotiator
- Barristers' clerk
- Receptionist
- Legal secretary
- Claims handler

Don't just take our word for it

Here is what two recent Damar Apprentices have to say:

"I have really enjoyed doing my Apprenticeship with Damar and working with my assessors Sharon and Jane. They were always really approachable. I have now nearly finished my Advanced Apprenticeship in Business and Administration, which has included the ILEX level 3 Diploma for Legal Secretaries. The next step for me is to train to become a legal executive and my long term ambition is to qualify as a solicitor"

Hazara Begum, Zacharia & Co Solicitors, Oldham

"I left college after my A levels and Damar helped me to get an Apprenticeship with Exchange Chambers, one of the largest barristers' chambers in the region. I have now successfully achieved my level 2 Apprenticeship in Business and Administration and am about to progress to the next level. There are lots of opportunities for young people in this sector – my ambition is to become a senior clerk in a barristers' chambers which is a job I had never even heard of a year ago!"

Josh Finn, Exchange Chambers, Manchester
